The Ghost Hamster

I thought of becoming a star.
When I take the stairs to act,
I never get very far.
People boo behind my back.

Sometimes people like to stare.
They look right through my face.
It's like I am not there on stage in the first place.

It stings I tell you
When they say I act like a mop
I'm a ghost hamster it's true.
But I really wish they would stop.

And so I stick to my stable, you see.
My trusty stallion is my only friend.
He calms the storm inside me
And helps my hurt feelings mend.
