

a Messy Classroom

Dogs Are Useful

Dogs can be very useful. Let's look at some helpful dogs.

Police dogs help find things. They use their nose to sniff. They can find people. They can find harmful things.

Service dogs help people who need extra help. They are smart and careful. They bring their owners things and help them cross the street.

Sled dogs help people to move in the snow. They are wonderful to have in the arctic. The cold can be painful, but they keep warm with their thick fur.

Herding dogs are helpful. They help farmers get their animals where they need to be. Animals are fearful of the dogs. They run from the dogs towards where the farmer wants them to go.

Show dogs are beautiful to look at. They are trained to do tricks. They are hopeful they will win a prize at a dog show.

Pet dogs are useful too. They can be playful and fun. They make their owners happy.

If you were a dog, how would you be useful?

