

Capitalizing Titles

When capitalizing titles, we capitalize every word. The exceptions to this are a, an, the, at, by, for, in, of, on, to, up, and, as, but, or, and nor. However, the first word of the title is always capitalized no matter which part of speech it is.

Practice capitalizing the titles below by writing them correctly.

1. the big freeze on the mountain

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. in the homes of ice and snow

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. traditions of the inuit: people at the top of the world

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. a history of the north pole as told by me

---

---

---

---

---

---

Name _____

Book Titles

What would be a good book title to fit with this picture?

---

---

---

---

---

---

Book Cover Design

Think of a title for a book about igloos, the Inuit, or something else you learned about in this unit. Write the title correctly and design a book cover for it.

